

Prophetic potential has 5 key components: consecration, content, charisma, character, and most importantly, Christ. We have moved into a time when miracles, signs, and wonders are marrying the prophetic, and a new breed of revelatory people is emerging. Matthew 22:29: You are in error because you do not know the Scriptures or the power of God. Heresy: a church that would redefine marriage, not worry about sex before marriage, appoint actively homosexual clergy, with no focus on holiness or anything uncomfortable, full of religion and over-systemized to make things work, no expectation or demonstration of miraculous healings, hearing from God, prophecy, lives changed, or deliverance from the bondage of demons, church programs with no underpinning or need of the Holy Spirit to function. If the Holy Spirit was withdrawn from the church today, 95% of what we do would go on and no one would know the difference. God says, My power will be seen in the nations. You live in the river of revelation. Those who have been nervous about the prophetic and have never prophesied will overflow with revelation. Your mouth will become a house of creation.

When he ascended on high, he took many captives and gave gifts to his people (Ephesians 4:8). One of those gifts is prophecy; others include miraculous powers, healing, tongues, faith, discerning of spirits, words of knowledge, words of wisdom, interpretation of tongues, prophets, apostles, evangelists, teachers, and shepherds. As we partner with the Holy Spirit and use these gifts, we direct Heaven on earth. We are trusted ambassadors who can legislate for His Kingdom with use of every gift. You will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you! We must recapture an inner way of seeing the world that understands that “I am a solution; I carry spiritual nuclear bombs and prophetic flamethrowers! My spiritual slingshot, my gift of prophecy, my bow and arrow, my gift of healing will liberate you and show you Jesus!”

“Hi, I’m Emma. I’m a prophet who hears from God.” Hard-wired into every one of us is a deep hunger for Jesus--the desire of nations. Few people refuse a prophetic word or turn down the chance to have a dream interpreted, to be healed, or to be delivered when it is offered to them! “You have been obsessed with grief and can’t shake it, but Jesus wants to heal it.”

Just as fracking releases forgotten and needed treasures, sometimes we require a high-pressure rush of the prophetic in our lives to unmask and bring to light what’s inside us. We have forgotten (or perhaps never seen) what we were created to do and be. The remembrance that prophecy brings often triggers a flow of emotions. When we prophesy, we break off of people every place that has been devastated and destroyed by the enemy. Prophets are fundamentally warriors, who know how to set captives free with words that liberate and fight on the recipient’s behalf. So immense was John’s prophecy and so great the change it brought, the Kingdom of Heaven suffered violence! It is a positive, forceful interruption to the negative way things had been going.

We must think in a combatant way when we use prophecy. We should be asking about them: How free can I get you today? How far can I transition you into the purposes of God? Can I set a new horizon line in your life for you to aim at? For all can prophesy = I can prophesy! We must so establish the discipline of hearing God for ourselves that we know what God is saying to us first, before we speak over others.

We prophesy according to what we think about God. Your prophetic ability will be as good as your belief about who God is and who you are in Him. Faith is not a vain hope, it is a sure hope, a certainty in who God is, an alignment. Faith looks into the heavenly realm and sees what is there; it is the realization of the unseen. I live constantly pulling on what I see in the other realm, the “unseen” heavenly realm. We waste time seeking endless confirmations because we have lost the art of instant obedience. If I don’t have the faith to believe that Jesus heals, I will never expect it in anyone’s life. I will only prophesy according to what I have faith for. Peter throws the crowd out in order to steward a faith-filled atmosphere (Acts 9:39–40). “Faith Hoovers”—they vacuum faith. “What comes into our minds when we think about God is the most important thing about us.” He is realigning us in a faith-filled position. Your faith grows when you pray in tongues: it gets built up. Hours of praying in tongues each week creates a deep strengthening within that is hard to shake. Tongues build you up and create a resistance to all the ways of the enemy, including physical sickness. Faith grows in God through life experiences. The gift of faith is the faith of God. He supplies this kind of faith by the Spirit. We pray, “God, give me Your faith!” The latter glory of this house will be greater than the former (Hag. 2:9) Jesus is coming back for His glorious bride—holy, blameless and without spot or wrinkle (Eph. 5:27) Of the increase of His government and peace there will be no end (Isa. 9:7 NKJV) The knowledge of the glory of the Lord will fill the earth as the waters cover the sea (Hab 2:14; Isa. 11:9) Ask for the nations as your inheritance. The only place where God’s glory is rising, is on you! God is looking for His spokespeople, His ambassadors, His government ministers who are appointed to act for His government in another country. Daniel is grieving (Dan 10) because he knows the returned exiles are weak-minded and in despair. So there has also been a grieving in our day over delay caused by low faith and weak-mindedness. The enemies of the Jews had locked up the people, their progress, prosperity, and authority. People will grab hold of you and want to go with you because it will be obvious and visible to the nations ‘that God is with you’ (Zech 8:19–23). Ezra 5 bursts forth the solution into our hands: The prophets began to prophesy! Haggai the prophet and Zechariah the prophet, a descendant of Iddo, prophesied. Prophecy breaks stagnancy, breaks the stalemate, breaks through blockages, breaks down barriers, and releases forward momentum and progress back to a people. It propels forward Kingdom work and it stops the enemy. The elders of the Jews built, and they prospered through the prophesying of Haggai and Zechariah. The prophetic enables the building of the Kingdom of God in the earth to progress without delay. This kind of prospering came back to a nation because of prophecy! Not by might nor by power, but by my Spirit. (Zech 4:6–7) It was by the Holy Spirit released by what was prophesied. It is not the promise-making time, it is the promise-keeping time. Where previous strategies, good ideas and human effort didn’t have what we need, we are going to prophesy. We are going to prophesy over businesses, so that the wealth of the unrighteous comes into the hands of the just. Surely the Sovereign LORD does nothing without revealing his plan to his servants the prophets (Amos 3:7). When a nation is in turmoil, God always calls for the prophetic voice. If they had stood in my council, they would have proclaimed my words to my people and would have turned them from their evil ways and from their evil deeds (Jer 23:22). You determine who the ruling spirit is in your land. Dreaming is as important as breathing. Write a list of 100 dreams you have for your life.

Glasgow Prophetic Centre: Put truth in our minds and mark our insides with it—the indelible, un-stealable truth about our authority. Do it for us so that we are not tossed about by every passing wave of insecurity, that we might rise up to be all that You said we should be. He gives us Power, the capacity to do things, and Authority, the right to do things. Apart from God we are the only beings in the cosmos with authority. Angels have power but no authority because they are not created in the image of God. The one time that an angel began to initiate things, taking authority and right that wasn't his, he fell and became Satan. Demons get authority from us. They look for people who will cooperate with them and give them authority. All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. Therefore go... The foe is defeated, and God asks you, "What do you want to do with the victory?" Jesus is a demon tormentor! What happened to Jesus at His transfiguration can happen to your mind. Lay hands on your head daily and ask God to miraculously transform your mind so that you might grasp the full nature of who you are. We are to be so transformed that we create a Kingdom of God culture that the world can become. The kingdom of this world will become the Kingdom of our Lord and of His Christ (Rev 11:15). This will be where the culture, values, and ways of the Kingdom of God will be superimposed over all other cultures. God's Kingdom will envelop the kingdoms of the world. God's snake ate Pharaoh's snake in the days of Moses (Ex 7:10–12).

As soon as we realized we had been the source of our own counterattack, we renewed our minds, and stopped empowering the devil. All demonic backlash ceased. A harassing spirit becomes impotent by my exercising authority and power. And I send it away! God is so powerful that by the finger of God I can cast out demons (Luke 11:20). God is reproducing Himself through His people, down through the history of mankind. 'You are "gods"; you are all sons of the Most High.' (Ps 82). God did not just give Adam the Garden of Eden to rule; He gave him the whole earth. Once God says let them have dominion, He exempts Himself from the day-to-day governance of the earth. God is the King of kings (that's us!) and the Lord of lords (also us). We are world lords! You've got the whole world in your hands. He watched Adam to see if he would name the animals as they are called in Heaven. Ruling, reigning, and having dominion. These are not things that you do; they are who you are. God got down on His knees, adored, and saluted Adam! (Gn 1:28). What is mankind that you are mindful of them, human beings that you care for them? You have made them a little lower than God and crowned them with glory and honor. You made them rulers over the works of your hand. When a king is in another's kingdom, he must lay down his crown. Eden belonged to Satan before it belonged to us. He owned the place. I threw you to the earth; (Ezekiel 28:17). Satan does not want you to have what he has always desired. God doesn't fight Satan. He delegates it to Michael to dispute with, rebuke, and battle him (see Jude 9). God doesn't fight alongside Michael because God doesn't fight angels. It will only require one of God's angels to put him into captivity for a thousand years! (Revelation 20:1–4.) The 4 levels of authority in God's Kingdom (Col. 1:16): thrones, powers, rulers, authorities. Ephesians 6 lists the 4 levels of authority in Satan's kingdom: rulers, authorities, powers, spiritual forces. We see Gabriel going to Mary on account of her station. Satan is terrified of your rank because you outrank even his strongest demon. In fact, you outrank Satan himself because you are made in the image of God.

Ecclesia: Romanizing through education, government, family, and culture. They understood how to disciple a nation. The Romans wanted to change the entire culture, thinking, and actions of any nation they conquered. It is our job to make our land look like Heaven. The Church is the determining factor for what happens in the nation. When the church is strong, a nation is strong. We, the Church, began to think of ourselves as a household only and not a government. The prophet of Mount Sinai and the prophet of Mount Carmel meet Jesus on Mount Hermon. The Lord is restoring to His Body the understanding that we are more than just a family. We are also a legislative ecclesia who has authority from Heaven to change things here on Earth. All of the tensions and bitter uprisings in the earth are a reaction to what God is saying and doing regarding this.

"I am a Christian and God is about to heal this lady." It is your responsibility to stir up the gifts that God has given you. Stirring is based on your will. Use what you have already received. In the Old Testament, prophecy was an event: The Holy Spirit did not live inside the prophets. Prophetic people received a word. But we don't need to receive. Rather we perceive what the Holy Spirit is saying as He communes with our spirit. The reality of conversion is that we become fused and entwined and joined with the Spirit of God! Our spirit merged with the Holy Spirit will live forever. We must find a place in our will where we choose to prophesy. What does God's Spirit and your spirit woven together look like inside you, in real time? It's like giving yourself a Holy Spirit MRI! Revival is here and now in the nations. We are asked to grow it up; we are not asked to call down what is already amongst us! The opposite of holy is ordinary. People should hear rumors that healing is happening in church and so turn up on our doorstep. Miracles don't just happen. We must work the miracle. "What part do I play in the miracle that is needed here?" All children of God can work miracles. Jesus made you worthy and commanded you to desire! "Oh God let me see what You have to show me, let me hear Your voice, and let me sense the moving of Your Spirit. God, I want all that You have for me. We are told to lay hold of, seize, and apprehend the Kingdom, to covet gifts. God loves those who so hunger for His power, presence, and authority that they will do anything to get it. Jacob I have loved. Esau was so preoccupied with the natural realm that he despised spiritual things. Let my mouth be filled with prophecy, my hands with healing. Father God, please retrain my focus to be on what matters to You.

The more hours that I gave myself to listening to Him and speaking out what I heard, the more skilled I became. There is a lifestyle that produces good quality prophecy. The principle of Jesus's Parable of Talents illustrates this—use what you have, and you will be given more. (Matthew 13:12). I repeatedly fumbled to wrap the English language around Holy Spirit utterings. Prophetic warriors must train themselves, until the last voice they hear at night is God's, and the first thing they wake up to is the sound of the Holy Spirit whispering in their ear. Prophecy for 10 minutes a day, in the house, in the car, in the office, wherever. Practice so that when it really matters, you know what God thinks in a heartbeat. "God what are You wanting to do in this church service today?" "What are You praying for me, Jesus?" Asking Jesus what He is praying to the Father for you, is particularly powerful. This is intentional practice. At first it is awkward, then normal, then instinctive, and finely it is compulsive. Once you develop a lifestyle of practice, you will find that prophecy leaks out at every moment! I can't think of a better way to spend your life than as a conduit for the voice of God.

Above everything else, Satan wants your voice silenced. Our God rules by His voice; He rules by sound. He governs the universe by speaking to it; He uses language to shape the world. God has authorized you to speak on His behalf. You are the only part of creation who is tasked to do this. Your voice registers in 2 realms: through conversation, you communicate in the earth realm and then legislate to bring down principalities in the spirit realm! God fixes things with His mouth, not with His hands. This is what we are to mirror. In this epoch of time we will see the Church get back her voice. God's opinions will be heard and spoken by His people. We are prophetic in the same way Jonah was. We have fought to like what God says and to find our revelatory flow. They will taste and see the goodness of God as we speak the truth. Truth will be seen, not as an offense to the world, but as redemptive and necessary. Truth will be pleasing and urgently desired. (Luke 1:37) No word from God will ever fail. God's words in His mouth have the same weight as God's word in our mouths. We learn well in the pruning, clipping, and trimming, in the wrestling and in the pain. It's no different for our nations. The words of God that come through you will create a voice that enables the release of the Holy Spirit to hover and create. You are the messenger that carries the word of the Lord for your family, your body, your nation.

"The will of the King will be done here; I command it!" Speak out over your government that they will marry righteousness. God will make the youth a vocal sign and wonder in these days. The spirit of Moses is falling on the late teenagers and those in their early twenties. You can see what God sees and say what God says. You will find your mouth taking you places that you never thought you would go and opening doors that you never thought would open. Release the Holy Spirit to hover and to bring it forth! If you decree the word of the Lord over your life, it opens the door to advance you.

Adam could see in the spirit. It was normal for Adam and Eve to see God. Adam had this other-dimensional ability, otherwise he wouldn't have been able to name the creatures correctly! As Adam's spiritual eyes began to shut, he became physically, fleshly focused. God is spirit, and his worshippers must worship in the Spirit. God still walks in the spirit, pursuing, asking and looking for those will meet Him in the spirit realm. God is only truly known in the spirit realm. When we see from our usual 3-D physical dimension, we struggle with our identity. But when God takes you outside of this flesh realm and draws you into His world, you see the role and authority that you are called to function in! Glory is kabod, meaning "weight" or "heavy," indicating the thickness of God that comes to rest, pressing His fullness down upon us. (2 Cor. 3:18), tells us through the story of Scripture that He is sharing His glory—doxa—thinking with us in an increasing measure. He places you in a chair of co-reigning and co-laboring with Him. The seat that you have is a forward-facing, ruling location. "I'm seated in heavenly places. What is Heaven doing today, God?" We must know freedom in order to minister freedom. The language of the Kingdom of God can often conflict with the language of church tradition! If the deceiver can make you believe that the fight is with yourself he knows that you have no antidote to that. The thoughts that you have are the weapons that are used against you. Fire at the one who sent the bullets. Kill the enemy, rather than try to catch his ammunition in your hands. I am continually shocked by how low our understanding of the spiritual realm is. Pray in the Spirit. Pray according to the spirit realm. Pray by what you have seen in the spirit; go into the spirit realm and do business. Put on the lens of spiritual sight. Most intense battles that happen in or around our life start when we enter new territory.

God is communicating all the time; We are responsible to learn His language. Solid food is for the mature, who because of practice have their senses trained to discern good and evil (Heb 5: 14). You get this solid food by training your senses. The Western evangelical Church invests everything in training our heads rather than our senses. We taste and see that the LORD is good (Ps. 34:8). What is biblically "normal" in a supernatural lifestyle?" Give Him thanks and ask for a deeper encounter. You might say, "I sensed" or "I felt." Spiritual perception is in the realm of "just knowing," or an impression, a hunch, a gut feeling, or a prompting. Pictorial visions are Holy Spirit visual aids. Ask what the Holy Spirit's interpretation of your picture is and don't assume one. The Bible is packed full of accounts of prophets seeing pictorial visions. It is best practice to prophesy to someone with your eyes open so that you can be fully aware of all that is happening to them. We exude so much in the spirit that it is relatively straightforward for spiritual beings, or those who see in the spirit, to watch what is happening with us. When we are asleep, our souls become rested and inclined to receive from Him. Many thousands of Muslims around the world are already meeting Jesus in their dreams in miraculous ways. America is already dreaming but they don't know what their dreams mean. 7 places in the New Testament speaking in tongues is referenced. One describes putting out a fleece before God as Gideon did. There are 300 mentions of angels in Scripture. 104 of these are interactions and visits with man. It is more biblically common to interact with angels than it is to speak in tongues or to lay out fleeces! We shouldn't command angels—only God does that. Are not all angels ministering spirits sent to serve those who will inherit salvation? (Heb. 1:14). The angels are already sent and active, it's just that you haven't been switched on to see them yet. When angels turn up on God's business, we are to engage, dialogue, and be obedient. It is we who decided that this temporal world would be given a greater place in us than the spiritual world. Heresy: we see cynicism as the sign of maturity. God is looking for friends. People want their version of Him--so God cannot be Himself with them.

Words always have impact! You decree a thing, and it will be established (Job 22:28 NASB). But the one who prophesies speaks to people for their strengthening, encouraging and comfort (1 Corinthians 14:3). No criticism or judgment must creep in. We must not do the Holy Spirit's job for Him. Only He convicts of sin. Prophecy activates godly motivation; it triggers people to make decisions for the better. Help them to see the future God wants for them. Revelation is powerful. It changes you immediately. Prophecy brings shape to what is sagging, gives purpose to what is wayward and life to that which is dying. Prophecy legislates for the Kingdom of God. "God, what's the solution to this depression that I see? God is sending a wave of healing joy to wash over you. You will find yourself in your right mind with a new strategy for your future." You have not exposed their pain, but they will know that you have seen it and will be grateful. All mankind is made in the image of God, and He wants none of us to perish. If you feel full of pain, anger and bitterness, or are irritated with people, you will not prophesy well. In fact, you should not prophesy at all. You are architecting hope, bringing constructive words. Naba is the ability to flow in the words of prophecy that land at the core of a situation, and like a well-fitting key, unlock and bring life. We have been offering 45-minute-long checkups at Glasgow Prophetic Centre for the last 11 years.

Of 9 spiritual gifts (1 Cor 12:7-11) 5 are revelatory. Prophecy is being a spokesperson for God, seeing the future as God intends it to be. Asking God, "What must this person do?" will lead you to a word of wisdom. We are to be comfortable with the supernatural rather than fixated with the spectacular. Always build a word of prophecy on top of the word of knowledge, so that the person might move beyond being impressed into meeting God fully. Ask God to tell you where someone has pain or sickness in their body. Be brave and tell them what you have seen and then heal them.

Sources of spirit to be discerned: human spirits, Holy Spirit, or demonic spirits. The call of God on your life requires your participation, to be self-aware and to manage the inside of you. Your internal dialogue is about 1500 words/minute. In my own life God lets me stand in front of a heavenly mirror and then I can see, in the reflection, what is prowling around me and what needs dealt with. God will reveal demonic principalities and powers over a geographical area. We do not focus on the demons that we see. We simply acknowledge that they are there and that they need to be removed. Always focus on Jesus! In good prophetic words there tends to be an arc of revelation that begins in the past by unveiling previous life events, clarity on the present, and a forthtelling concerning the future that brings hope. You are proving that God knows the past and therefore can also be trusted to know what is ahead. Put on the glasses of the prophetic that seeks to release a sharpening and clarity of where destiny lies. A second arc is revelation, interpretation, and application. Most words can wait a few days. Don't bring unresolved words! Ask God what the word or picture means and what the recipients are to do with it. Ask questions like, "What do You mean by this God?" and "What should they do next?"

My father calls his quiet time his "joy time." I loose to you the ability to memorize scripture with ease! People tend to review their lives in small increments and are rarely able to handle a wholesale change, even when the prophetic person knows that it is really needed. We must care about whether people are ready to hear it. 60% of our work is done off platform in relationship building. When you have beheld the glory of God or heard Him speak, you dare not dilute it. We must know when prophecy is and is not the appropriate tool. Some prophesied what should have been a prayer. A culture of teams of people who prophesy is the biblical safeguard to handle revelation. Even in the Old Testament you rarely find a prophet alone. If there is no wise or capable authority able to protect and validate the prophetic, most prophetic people will get torn to pieces. The prophetic function in the Body of Christ was unique, strange, and wired for bold truth-telling. God gives prophetic warriors the temperament and personality that can carry revelation.

[I will only ever prophesy according to what I have faith for. Prospering came back to Israel because of prophecy! When a nation is in turmoil, God always calls for the prophetic voice. Apart from God we are the only beings in the cosmos with authority. He exempts Himself from the day-to-day governance of the earth. We are to be so transformed that we create a Kingdom of God culture that the world can become. It is our job to make our land look like Heaven. You've got the whole world in your hands. Satan is terrified of your rank because you outrank even his strongest demon. We must find a place in our will where we choose to prophesy. What are You praying for me, Jesus?" Most intense battles that happen in or around our life start when we enter new territory.
